Biotin (B7)

QUICK GUIDE

Seed v5.1 · adjust ♥

WHAT IS BIOTIN (B7)?

Biotin (B7). Your entry: Included with restrictions. Evidence-adjusted: Stop 2–3 days before any blood test; tell the lab you take it.

Strongest evidence: A · Approved use

HOW IT'S TAKEN

Stop 2–3 days before any blood test; tell the lab you take it

Not scheduled by default

FDA: biotin can falsely lower troponin (heart-attack test) and distort hormone and other immunoassays; one death reported A · Approved use

DOSING PROTOCOL

- Included with restrictions
- Window: AM

POTENTIAL BENEFITS

- Evidence: FDA: biotin can falsely lower troponin (heart-attack test) and distort hormone and other immu...
  A · Approved use

POTENTIAL SIDE EFFECTS

- Lab-test interference is the main risk

Recommendation differs from your entry: Stop 2–3 days before any blood test; tell the lab you take it

Lab-test interference is the main risk

Oral use

Store as the label directs.

Evidence grade A: Approved use

For educational use only.

PEPPERSDVO